Jacqui Walters is the inaugural Chair of CleanCo Queensland, the State Government's low-emissions energy generator. She is a Director and Chair of the Risk and Audit Committee of Slater & Gordon, and a Director and Chair of the Risk and Audit Committee, and Investment Committee member of Development Victoria. Jacqui also served a three-year term as an inaugural Board Member and Chair of the Risk and Audit Committee for Building Queensland. She is a member of the Queensland Advisory Committee of Second Bite – a food rescue organisation, and a Director of Pathways to Resilience, a youth resilience for purpose organisation. In 2020 Jacqui completed a role as Chair of the Citytrain Response Unit tasked with overseeing the transformation of Queensland Rail and public transport in Queensland.

With her significant Australian and international experience in strategy and growth projects, her appointment as CleanCo Queensland Chair presents an exciting opportunity to be part of Queensland's renewable energy story, and the transition to a low carbon future.

Established in December 2018, CleanCo Queensland was created with Queensland's most flexible low-emissions generation assets to put downward pressure on electricity prices by integrating renewables, while preserving reliability and supporting the transition to clean energy in a way that drives regional growth and jobs, contributing to the achievement of Queensland's 50% renewable energy target by 2030.

As CleanCo Queensland enters its fourth year, Jacqui will speak about the challenges and opportunities the Board faced in establishing the company in a dynamic and competitive market, and the strategies applied to leverage and manage this complex environment, as they support companies to achieve their net zero targets and develop new assets to add to CleanCo Queensland's portfolio. Jacqui will also provide insights into how the Board built CleanCo Queensland, and most importantly, the lessons learned as they strive to lead a vibrant, successful, and growing business.

Jacqui holds a Bachelor of Commerce and held a Certified Practising Accountant (CPA) qualification for 12 years. She is a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors (AICD), and a Trustee of Committee for Economic Development of Australia (CEDA).
